Other Important Notes:

Rewards vary for some merchants based on the item purchased. Some purchases like gift cards, in-store pickup items, and video game consoles are not eligible for rebates.

Be sure to read the exclusions and fine print at the rewards program before clicking through to your desired merchant.

BondRewards' shopping rates are based on the current value ($25) of a $50 savings bond; because of this, all rates here are half what's provided on their website.

Rebate percentages for some programs change fairly often; this information was current as of Nov. 2011. To verify the current rates, see the individual sites.
